

The Best of

Both Worlds

Combine your
RV Travel & Sales Experience

We need couples for exciting opportunities in sales and RV travel.

Could you be one of our super-talented RVing consultant teams? Take a look at the Good Sam Consultant Checklist below to see if you have what it takes:

- ▶ You are looking for an opportunity to be an Independent Contractor, responsible for your own earning potential based on sales performance and working on a commission based income.
- ▶ You have proven sales experience in closing deals and skilled at selling intangible products, (print and digital advertising sales experience a plus).
- ▶ You are digital AND tech savvy – know your Facebook post from your Blog posts; Search Engines from Social Media; and be comfortable in a digital world, collecting data on an iPad with accuracy and applying Good Sam's criteria in evaluating RV Parks & Campgrounds.
- ▶ You are detail-oriented, organized and have impeccable customer service skills.
- ▶ You are ambitious, self-motivated AND can work while living in your own RV and traveling for extended periods from March to early November.
- ▶ You are available January 1st and ready to work a U.S. territory (Canadian territory, if applicable).

If you and your partner said yes to all of the above and want to find out more, we'd love to meet you!
